

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Michael Scippa 415 847-3006

Worst Practices: New Report Sheds Light on CA Legislature's Reckless Alcohol Deregulating; BAC to the Future? More States Join the Move to Reform; Alcohol Action Network Receives National Recognition; Dunkin' Spiked Brings Shame to Ben Affleck

SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA (November 22, 2023) – Alcohol Justice just published its Fall eNews. The quick-read highlights current stories about alcohol industry shenanigans and public health and safety advocates' responses.

BREAKING > Alcohol Justice releases a comprehensive, damning overview of California alcohol legislative trends over the past decade, uncovering the real scope of deregulation.

TOP STORY > The 2023 legislative season is done, and advocates celebrate losses, mourn victories, and continue to dig in against Big Alcohol's proxies in Sacramento.

IN THE AJ DOGHOUSE > Dunkin' joins the rush to put booze in everything you—and Ben Affleck—ever liked during your childhood.

ALSO

- National Calls for a 0.05 BAC Grow Louder, But States Are Slow to Lis
- Investigators find alcopops associated with sexual assault—and predation (Health Behavior Research)
- Confronting the myths that stop effective alcohol taxes (Global Health Now)
- Emerging initiative to bridge alcohol research and advocacy gains national award (AJ via Alcohol Action Network)

Read the complete Alcohol Justice Fall eNews here: <https://bit.ly/3SQ2KC2>

###